Both go to Fruitytown.

Alphonso Hunt, the colored boy fire-bug, and Charles Hafer, the boy who confessed to a number of thefts, were tried to a jury in Squire Gillespy's court yesterday, and were found guilty and ordered to be committed to the reform school.

Another Ferry Quits.

Following the suspension of business by the ferryboat Jessie B. at the middle, or Morgan's ferry, Wolf's ferry at West Wheeling has also quit business, at least for the time being. This would be a good chance to get a boat for the island trade.

Released from Jail.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Mamie Worrell, the woman indicted for stealing a diamond ring from Wheat & Hancher some time ago, was released from jail. The ring, which she threw away, was recovered, and it is probable nothing more will be heard of her case.

Old Men in Hoc.

Last evening three men went into Porter's saloon, on South Main street, and after taking several rounds of drinks, refused to pay. Officer Donovan was called in and arrested all three. They gave their names as Owen Manning, Pete Monaghan and Thomas Angott. They are oil well workmen from the Sistersville oil field, and came up to the city to have a good time.

Two Women Sent to Jail.

Yesterday Patsy Brown and Blanche Taylor, two second ward women, were arrested by Officer West and arraigned before Squire Gillespy, who fined them $20 and costs each and in default of the cash, sent them to jail for ten days. They were inmates of a dive on Market street when it was raided in October, but escaped arrest at that time, and are now brought up on the old charge.

Guilty of Burglary.

Yesterday in the criminal court the case of Jack Dorniney and Andrew Gavin, indicted for burglary, was finished. The jury was given the case shortly before 6 o'clock, and after being out about an hour it returned a verdict of "guilty as charged in the indictment." Their counsel at once entered a motion for a new trial. The offense of which they were convicted was breaking into Ada Foster's house and stealing a valuable clock.

Bishop Penick to Speak.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Penick, who has been appointed by the authorities of the Protestant Episcopal church to look after the work among the colored people of the south, will speak in St. Matthew's church Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock upon the work of the church among the colored people and its various problems. As the bishop is well known in Wheeling as an attractive and eloquent speaker, there will be a large attendance at the church.

Killed in a Steel Plant.

William H. Ward, better known as "Luch Williams," met with a fatal accident at the Bellair steel works yesterday afternoon. One of the metal cars jumped the track and caught Ward in such a way as to mash one of his legs almost entirely off, and bruised and crushed him about the body. He was not killed outright, but was so badly crushed that there was no hope for his recovery. He was removed to his home on Rose hill, where he had a wife and two children.

Mr. A. P. Miller Dead.

Mr. A. P. Miller, who was born at St. Clairsville and passed the greater portion of his life in Belmont county, died at Columbus on Monday night. He was engaged in the insurance business until he went to Columbus some years ago. The deceased was seventy-two years old and was an active business man up to within a few weeks of his death. He was the father of Orlando A. Miller, president of the Central Ohio Paper Company of Columbus, for which company he traveled. He was an active member of the M. E. church for fifty-six years.

Deeds of Trust Abound.

A significant sign of the times always is the relative number of transfers of real estate and deeds of trust entered on Clerk Hook's records. In prosperous times the sales of real estate largely outnumber the mortgages, while in times of depression the ratio is reversed. There is probably no surer sign of the conditions of trade and industry than this. So far this year the predominance of the deeds of trust has been unprecedented, and 1893 closed with the same condition of affairs. Deeds of trust are numerous and transfers of real estate few and far between, with low prices ruling.

Plenty of Houses Vacant.

There probably never was a time in the history of Wheeling when there were so many houses marked "For Rent." These are mainly houses of the medium class, renting from $12 to $20 a month. Of the best class there are not more houses than usual for rent, and of the cheapest the same is true. This is explained by real estate agents by the fact that people who heretofore lived in better houses have sought cheaper ones, and in some cases families have doubled up in one house, to economize on rents. On the island the increase in the number of vacant houses is more notable than elsewhere, as it is affected by the bridge toll, as well as the general "Democratic times."

CHASING A HORSE THIEF.

A Stolen Rig Recovered by Constable Anderson Yesterday.

The INTELLIGENCER has already given an account of the stealing of a horse from James Campbell, at St. Clairsville, last Saturday. The horse was recovered, and on Monday Constable Anderson got on the track of the thief. Yesterday afternoon he traced him to Roney's Point, in this county.

He had stolen another horse and buggy at Elm Grove on Monday, and was driving this when the constable pursued him to Roney's Point. From that point he drove back to Elm Grove, and thence up Wheeling creek. Here he was hotly pursued by the officer, and at last he came in sight of him. Seeing the game was up, the thief abandoned the stolen rig and took to the woods.

Anderson brought the stolen property back to its owner at Elm Grove, but the thief made good his escape. The fellow gave his name as Smith. There is a pretty good clue to his identity, and it is said he has figured in another form of criminal transaction at Bellaire. It is expected that he will yet be captured.

Constable Anderson deserves great credit for his effective work in pursuing the thief.

THE RELIEF WORK.

Donations Received and Orders Filled by the Committee.

Yesterday donations were received by the citizens' relief committee as follows: Booth & Digby, one barrel of onions; Bayha, the baker, 25 loaves of bread. Mr. Bayha will sell bread at $3 a hundred to those who wish to donate it to the committee.

C. N. Taylor yesterday sent the committee a nice feed of oysters, and Hottmann, the restaurant keeper, fed the clerks on soup. H. Samson & Son, sent in a box of good stories.

The number of orders received and filled to date has reached 1,725. There were about 100 filled yesterday.

Twenty-five tickets were yesterday issued at the police court room for work under the city gas board. The board worked twenty-five men on the island yesterday.

The executive committee will meet this evening at half past seven o'clock at the store room on Market street, and it is important that every member shall be present.

The committee has spent its last dollar, and unless the public comes to its aid it will have to cease work. Thursday is another general distribution day, but if the committee's treasury does not receive an accession of funds or its stores are not replenished the depot will not be open on that day. Much will depend on the developments to-day.

Corporation Elections Yesterday.

At the annual meeting of the Wheeling Steel and Iron Company yesterday afternoon, held at the office of the company on Fourteenth street, the following gentlemen were elected directors: John P. Gilchrist, C. H. Hubbard, W. F. Stifel, Joseph Bell, G. B. Caldwell, W. A. Isett, G. K. Wheat, John G. Hoffmann and Alonzo Loring.

The Fire and Marine Insurance Company elected the following board of directors—the same as last year: C. J. Rawling, Alf Caldwell, G. A. Beuter, M. Jeffers, J. J. Jones, Frank Gruse, William M. List, W. A. Wilson and C. H. Copp.

The directors of the West Virginia Tobacco Company yesterday organized by re-electing Augustus Pollack president, H. P. Wilkinson secretary, and C. F. Brandfass treasurer.

Meetings of Stockholders at Moundsville.

The Moundsville Electric Company held its annual meeting yesterday and elected the following board of directors: H. W. Hunter, J. C. Bardall, W. W. Smith, F. H. Blake, J. J. Potts, J. D. Burley and J. M. Booth.

The Moundsville Shoe Manufacturing Company met at the Moundsville Mining & Manufacturing Company's office and elected the following directors: J. C. Bardall, M. F. Cox, John James, J. O. Roberts, W. W. Hunter, John T. Galaher, of Moundsville, and George H. P. Schmidt, of Wheeling.

The Fostoria Glass Company elected the following directors: L. B. Martin, J. J. Kerns, W. S. Brady, of Moundsville, and August Rolf and John J. Jones, of Wheeling.

"Slavery Days."

This popular spectacular production of old time southern scenes was again greeted by a large and delighted audience last night at the Grand. It will be given at the matinee this afternoon and again this evening, when the engagement closes. Nobody should miss the opportunity to enjoy it.

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.
